DEFENSE

- Asking Defendant be released to the property identified in the motion.
- Probation has done a preliminary assessment and the property checks out so far.
- Suggests Defendant's mother Andrea Hanson as a third-party custodian.
- Defendant is aware of the strict conditions of release proposed.
- Defendant wants to be around for birth of his child.
- Believes the conditions proposed can assure the court that Defendant is not a flight risk or danger to the community.
- Girlfriend and Mother understand that there can be no drugs, firearms, or paraphernalia at any location/automobile Defendant is present at.

PROBATION

- Has had contact with the owner of the upper level of the duplex Defendant will reside in.
- Spoke with Mother about being third-party custodian.
- Will be out to the residence in the next couple of days if Defendant is released on GPS monitoring.

GOVT

- Would not usually join in this motion except for the birth of Defendant's child.
- Defendant's girlfriend wants him there for the birth of their child.
- Thinks proposal by Defense plus GPS monitoring would allow court to be aware of Defendant's compliance with conditions of release.
- Wants court to question Defendant's mother regarding being a third-party custodian.

- Doesn't want Defendant driving around town.
- Wants Pretrial Services to contact office if Defendant violates GPS monitoring within 24 hours.

COURT

- Addresses Andrea Hanson about ability to be a third-party custodian and informs her of the responsibilities she will have.
- Court accepts joint recommendation to release with conditions.

COURT ORDERS:

- Defendant to be released to address approved by pretrial services.
- Andrea Hanson is approved as third-party custodian.
